Death of Robert Kew, of Heart Trouble, After Six Months' Illness.

Robert Kew died at his home in this town Monday evening, Nov. 7, aged 74 years. Mr. Kew had been failing but was about as well as usual until within a few hours of his death, which was caused by heart trouble. Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday at 1 o'clock p. m. Rev. George C. McDougall was the officiating clergyman and the bearers were James Kew, J. N. Kew, George Kew and Bert Kew. Besides a widow, he leaves a son, Bert Kew of Hanover, N. H., and a daughter, Mrs. A. M. Flanders of Barre, who were present at the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. George Andrus are rejoicing over the birth of a son, born last Friday.

C. J. Tabor has bought a place in Ferrisburg, where he is now moving his family and goods.

John L. Baird and L. K. Smith, who have been on the sick list the past few weeks, are rapidly improving.

Miss Little Skinner has gone to Heaton hospital, where she had a successful operation for appendicitis last Tuesday.

The deer hunting season called out a large number of hunters from this and surrounding towns. About sixty deer were killed in this locality.

C. J. Tabor has sold his residence and little farm to J. I. Palmer for $1,500.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kew of Jericho, Orville Kew of Montpelier, Miss Marguerite Kew of Barre and James Eggleston, a student at Dartmouth, were in town to attend the funeral of Robert Kew.

WATERBURY.

Welcoming Reception for Rev. and Mrs. William Boicourt.

A large number gathered at the Congregationalist church Tuesday evening to welcome the Rev. and Mrs. William Boicourt to the church and town. The chapel was arranged as a parlor and in the receiving party were the Rev. and Mrs. Boicourt, B. R. Demeritt, Mrs. L. H. Elliott, E. F. Palmer, Jr., and Mrs. Julia Senbury. Mrs. Nellie Chase received the guests at the door, those who assisted in the introducing being Mrs. F. L. Knight, Mrs. Stranahan, Mrs. Ayers and Mrs. E. F. Palmer, Jr. Cake and coffee were served by Supt. Chaffee, Principal Rheimher, C. I. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gupill and Miss Wallace and Miss Powell. Masters Don and Frank Grant attended at the outside door. During the evening organ selections were played by Prof. Boveas of Barre, who always receives a hearty welcome from a Waterbury audience. He shows the organ at its best, and the community is fortunate in having an organist of such ability so near. The evening was a very pleasant one to all, and Mr. and Mrs. Boicourt feel that they have the best wishes of the people of Waterbury, regardless of denomination. The general committee in charge of this delightful affair was Mrs. B. R. Demeritt, Mrs. L. H. Elliott and Mrs. Knowles.
